I feel that this whole law suit was not only unfair and unwarranted but also an unnecessary and frivolous waste of taxpayers money. I think that was the result of a lot of envy and jealousy from bitter underachievers. Bill Gates has done much more in compromising and trying to make up for something that wasn't a wrong in the first place than most people would do. I think he should be praised and commented for what he and his genius have given individuals businesses the U.S.A. and the world instead of our letting envious bitter petty and little-minded idiots punish him for his success and achievements. I guarantee you that if any one of them had created what he has they would feel entirely different. The whole world owes him gratitude and praise not this stupid backstabbing.
